

Virginia Municipal League Local Government Day

February 6, 2014

Attendees: Vice Mayor Chris Bannon, Councilman Thomas Godwin, Councilwoman Joan Natali, Town Manager Heather Arcos, and Town Clerk Libby Hume.

Representatives from the Virginia Municipal League and Virginia Association of Counties gave an overview of a number of house and senate bills under consideration which could affect local governments in the Commonwealth.

Governor Terry McAuliffe was the keynote speaker and addressed the attendees regarding his priorities while in office, which included education and job creation.

The Cape Charles representatives also spent time with Senator Lynwood Lewis and his legislative aide Charles Stanton along with Northampton County Supervisors Larry LeMond and Rick Hubbard.

---

Town Clerk